

Private space for your team

Collaborate.green offers great possibilities for online collaboration.

Do you feel your team would benefit from the collaboration possibilities the platform offers, but you would appreciate a little more privacy? We can set up a private collaboration group for your team.

This allows you for example to organize joint activities, make relevant documents accessible in one place, prepare meetings and events together, share meeting notes and assign tasks to team members.